MY WORD

By DOROTHY LARIMER

Helen Leishman and Grace Pat- came into the Times office the other afternoon. They came by bus from Oakland and both are blind. Holding on to each other as Grace tapped along with her white cane, they went to door on Solano request- signatures on petitions ask- Governor Brown to save the home for the blind on Tele- graph Avenue.

Grace has lived at the home 32 years, Helen, 11. When and if the home to relocate the Orientation Center in Albany and the Indus- trial Center in Berkeley comes about, these women and the other residents of the home will be separated and placed in private homes. They are understandably upset about the whole thing, particularly since by moving a sub- stantial 300 feet, the entire setup can be preserved at its present lo- cation, saving an estimated two million dollars.

There are those who say Al- bany should be "humanitarian" and welcome the Orientation Cen- ter here. But what is humanitar- ian about the way people like Helen and Grace are being treat-

Mother's Day is Sunday. Each year at this time I have some mis-givings about my maternal im- age. Hope my four daughters and grandson won't be too dis- appointed when they remember mama. Instead of dishpan hands, have fingers stained with de- tergent and hypo. Instead of bak- ing bread and putting up jars of home-canned goodies, I print pic- tures and pick at the typewriter. Guess some of us aren't meant to be Whistler's Mother types, but at least once a year I wish I hadn't, tatted or did delicate em- broidery — something, anything that would be motherly and nice to the kids to remember.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH of Albany will hold its annual Mother and Daughter Banquet Sunday, May 13, in the church so- cial hall. The theme: "An Evening on the Shores of the Indian Ocean." Mrs. Kay Gudnason, out- standing speaker, will bring the message, "The Voice of the Sea." Tickets may be obtained by telephoning the church office before Sunday, May 13.

Orientation Center Again Discussed by Council

After much discussion, Council members voted Monday night to authorize Mayor Joel Parker to arrange an audience with Govern- or Brown, urging him to use his influence in locating the Orienta- tion Center for the Blind on land already off Albany's tax rolls.

There was a concerted effort on the part of Councilmen to clarify exactly what this city wants. Howell, Hein and Carlevaro agreed that the people of Albany would prefer to have the Center on land already owned by the state, but would not object to it on the Adams-Madison site if the former arrangement cannot be made. It was Mayor Parker's un- derstanding that the majority of the people want it on state-owned land or not at all.

Parker said he has been in touch with Assemblymen Don Mulford and Byron Rumford as well as with Senator John Holm- dahl on the matter.

Councilman Hein said the Mad- ison-Adams site represents only $40 a year in taxes lost. He ob- jected to "kicking the poor blind people around."

The mayor said he personally has nothing against the blind, but he is concerned about the poten- tial of the Adams-Madison prop- erty. He said El Cerrito Plaza did not bring in high taxes before its development. "We have to look down the track a little," he said.

Councilman Carlevaro suggest- ed that Parker find out if the owners of the property are will- ing to sell to the state. Council- man Egenberger said the Council is not telling the people what to do with the property. "But should we sit by and remove more land from the tax rolls, be expected to give more services, and cut down our tax base?"

Parker noted that Rapid Trans- it is planning to use the Santa Fe right-of-way, which will mean more property removed from the tax rolls.

Howell said he believes Albany should try to get reimbursed for services. He reminded the others that this is election year.

The mayor was instructed to urge the governor to construct on state-owned property, and to "tread lightly" because Albany still has to deal with the state on tax relief, the school situation and for the triangular piece of property at San Pablo and Bu- chanan.

Two persons spoke from the audience on the Orientation Cen- ter question. Robert Luoma sug- gested that Parker ask the govern- or to make provisions for car- ring for the people displaced at the Telegraph Avenue location when the state home for the blind is closed. Former Councilman Paul Boych charged that "ele- ments" in the city are using the blind for political exploitation. "That," said Mayor Parker, "is one man's opinion."

GOLDEN GATE FIELDS ATTORNEY OBJECTS TO TAX INCREASE

Golden Gate Fields may be Al- bany's goose that lays the golden eggs, but it will go to court to test the legality of admissions tax if the Albany City Council doubles the tax as proposed, At- torney Alvin C. Baum Jr., told Council members Monday night.

Because City Attorney Law- rence Saler was not present at the meeting, the Council voted to hold over for one week any action on raising the admission tax from 10 to 20 cents.

Attorney Baum said Golden Gate Fields is now the largest or second largest taxpayer in the city. He enumerated taxes now being paid directly or indirectly to Albany as well as those to county, state and federal govern- ments. Over a period of three years, he said, the field has aver- aged $117,335 annually in taxes paid to Albany.

Baum said the racetrack does not require the services other in- dustries do. There are no children to be educated and the track has its own police and fire depart- ment. He said about 1,000 employ- ees trade in Albany.

The attorney said that Albany imposes no admission tax on mo- vies or bowling, adding that Gold- en Gate Fields, which has not ob- jected to the 10-cent tax, would feel called upon to test the legiti- macy of the tax if it were doubled.

"Golden Gate Fields may be the goose that lays the golden egg," Baum concluded, "but it can't survive this treatment."

Administrative Officers James B. Turner pointed out that the average person attending the races spends between $70 and $80 wagering. He said the admission tax is levied against the people attending and not the track.

Councilman Lewis Howell said he didn't feel any concern about the admission tax until last year when he noticed the parking fee had been raised from 50 cents to $1. "Nobody complained too bad- ly," he said, adding he didn't be- lieve the proposed raise in ad- mission tax would hurt attend- ance, estimated by Baum to be about 9,100 per racing day. How- ell said Albany does provide fire and police protection at the fields.

Councilman George Hein took issue with Baum's statement that at least some of the 9,100 people who attend the races spend money in Albany. He said they "hit the freeway" and are gone.

Council members expressed hope that the amicable relations between Albany and Golden Gate Fields would continue. Bill Pro- vince, manager of the fields, was introduced but made no com- ments.

Safeway Survey Shows 70% Favor Solano Location

In a scientific sampling study conducted by the Market Research Department of Safeway, it was discovered that 70 per cent of Albany families are in favor of Safeway's plan to build a new, modern store on Solano Avenue between Curtis and Neilson Streets. Twenty-seven per cent of the persons interviewed had no opinion, and only three per cent were opposed to the new store.

Quentin Reynolds, Regional Vice-President of Safeway Stores, Incorporated, said that the survey was made in order to obtain consumer opinions, and the sampling was taken by personal interviews with 314 individuals in every neighborhood in Albany, including the area east of San Pablo.

Some other interesting facts brought out by the survey made in connection with Safeway's proposed large modern supermarket with 99-car off-street parking lot, are as follows:

1. Only 44 per cent of the residents of Albany do most of their shopping for food in Albany grocery stores.

2. Fifty-six per cent of Albany residents do most of their food shopping outside Albany, of which approximately one-half is in El Cerrito, and one-half in Berkeley.

3. Out of every $10 spent for all retail purchases, only $3.50 was spent in Albany, according to the average of all persons interviewed, and 29 per cent of persons interviewed said they spent nothing in Albany.

Some of the typical comments made by women in favor of the new market were:

"Very nice to have a bigger store. That's why I shop at the Plaza." "It will help the City. Taxes for schools." "Improve property values. More tax money for Albany." "The Safeway on Solano is so crowded and small. Lucky needs some competition." "Would pick up the block. The Avenue is depressing — old and out of date buildings all along."

Economy in State Fiscal Program Discussed by GOP Candidate Joe Shell

The imperative need for economy in California's fiscal program, and a pledge to wield the "blue pencil" in a "line by line" scrutiny of the state's legislative budget, featured the talk last Wednesday night, by Assemblyman Joe C. Shell at the Berkeley Young Republicans 7th Congressional District dinner at the Oakland Coliseum Club.

Shell, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor in the June 5 primary election, spoke to an audience of 500 Republicans, including a delegation of more than 50 from headed by Mr. and Mrs. Lyon, co-chairmen for Governor in Albany.

Introduced by retiring Assemblyman Walter Dahl, Shell entered into a discussion of the form, stressing the need for budget control by the state to avoid state fiscal disaster.

He said the need for a conservative state government was a major reason for his candidacy for the governor.

BAPTISTS BELIEVE... GOD LOVES EVERY PERSON

During the war a young soldier was seriously injured in battle. He lingered a long time in the hospital and finally was discharged to go home to die. He waited cheerfully, having committed himself wholly unto God. When the waiting was over his parents went to sit by his body in the funeral home. Scores of friends came offering words of love and sympathy. One of the last to come was an unthoughtful woman whose lack of faith was well known. She said to the boy's mother, "Where was God when your son died?"

For a moment the mother was overwhelmed. How could she answer that question in so tragic an hour? Then the answer came. She said kindly: "I'll tell you where God was when my son died. He was at the same place he was when his son died, in heaven reaching out in love and compassion for my son and your son."

Few stories could illustrate so well as this one the meaning of the teachings found in the Bible. God's book tells of God's love, it tells of the place of his Son in proving that love. And the Bible tells that life is far from futile, and that death is only a door to the life to come for those who live within the circle of God's love.

The Bible plainly teaches that

Seattle World's Fair Previewed by Albany High PTA at Meeting May 17

"Heigh-Ho! Come to the Fair!" expresses the theme of the last regular meeting of the Albany High School PTA Thursday evening, May 17, at 7:45 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Reflecting the great interest in the Seattle World's Fair, a set of 35 mm color slides taken at the Fair will be shown and there will be a short movie film in color depicting a visitor's day at the Fair. These have been obtained by Mrs. William Koser, program chairman, through the courtesy of the Travel Information center in San Francisco. Narration for the slides and the movie will be done by Miss Ritchie Riggs, a senior at Albany High School.

According to Mrs. Lee Seidell, president of Albany High School PTA, there will be a short business meeting and installation of officers for the coming year preceding the program. Mrs. Clyde Nottingham will act in a dual capacity; as president-elect she will report on the PTA state convention, and as historian she will give highlights of the past year's activity.

The following officers will be installed by Mrs. George Nesbitt, past president of Albany High School PTA: Mrs. Clyde Nottingham, president; Mrs. Eldon Wolf, first vice-president; Mrs. Lee Keck, second vice-president; Mrs. Victor Brandt, third vice-president; Mrs. Robert McFadden, re-John Jacobson, Albert Kister, G.  Theater Announce Summer Matinees

Vista PTA and William Garren, owner of Albany Theater, jointly announce the third annual summer matinee schedule for children under 12.

Beginning June 16 and continuing for 13 consecutive weeks, matinees will be held on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons showing children's movies approved and sponsored by the Berkeley Motion Picture and Television Council. A bonanza is afforded parents in the summer tickets selling for $1.50 which are good for 16 admissions — a net savings of $2.50 per season ticket. Actually, up to three children will be admitted on a ticket for each movie. A word of caution — popcorn is additional!

Garren said, "The theater makes an effort to show outstanding films with established story value during this series." Some of the outstanding movies presented in past summers have been: Around the World in 80 Days, Dog of Flanders, Snow Queen, and Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. This is an experiment in community entertainment for children, with the emphasis on wholesome entertainment at the child's level.

Tickets will be available at the local elementary schools and at the Albany Theater and sales will continue through June 16. Proceeds from the ticket sales will enable Vista PTA to help to send children to summer camp; to help provide secondary level braille textbooks; to contribute to the support of part-pay dental and optical clinics; and to aid other worthwhile community purposes. For further information, phone Albany Theater, LA 4-5656, or Lette Fletcher, LA 44709.

Woman Foils Armed Robbery Try

Quick action on the part of Beulah Lanouguere of 423 Evelyn, a clerk at Brighton Grocery at 1250 Brighton, and Mrs. Ellen Alvarado of 522 Masonic enabled police to pick up a man and girl within minutes after they had attempted an armed robbery of the grocery last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Lanouguere said Mrs. Alvarado had come into the store to shop shortly before a young man wearing dark glasses, and his companion entered. The man came directly to the counter, pulled a gun and ordered, "Hand it over." Mrs. Lanouguere refused. He then pointed the gun between her eyes and asked, "Are you going to give?" She said no. Then the girl removed a small pistol from her purse, pointed it at the clerk with the warning, "He means business."

Mrs. Lanouguere replied, "I'm still not going to give you anything. Those are only toy guns."

Frustrated, the pair left the store. Mrs. Lanouguere ran to the phone to call Albany police, instructing Mrs. Alvarado to go out and get a description of the car. The information was relayed to patrol cars in Albany, El Cerrito and Berkeley. Eleven minutes later Berkeley police had the suspects in custody. They were identified by the Albany women and arrested.

According to police officers, the guns used by Michael H. Williams of San Francisco and Gail Young of Oakland track guns, not toys. Mrs. Lanouguere could have been injured. When asked if she was injured, the clerk said, "No later!"

Tips for Water Sports

Best Safeguard Against Drowning Is Learning to Swim Well -- Coble

(This is the second in a series of water sport articles from Elmer Coble of the Albany YMCA, Ed.)

"No Swimming" signs mean just what they say, YMCA Director Elmer Coble said, and usually for good reason. They often mark dangerous areas such as polluted water, strong currents or tides, sea weed beds, as well as other hazards. Getting caught in strong currents at weed beds can quickly exhaust a swimmer; stay out of them. If you do find yourself in a powerful current, don't try to buck it, but swim across it and head for shore.

Because they have little concept of danger, small children should be watched carefully and constantly around water, Coble said. Floating aids and inner tubes give children a false sense of security. If they should drift into deep water and something happened to deflate their support, tragedy could result. The best protection for children, it is emphasized, is to teach them how to swim and to be careful around water.

This year, according to the YMCA, more than 40 million Americans will be afloat in everything from do-it-yourself kayaks to twin-engined cabin cruisers. As every water activity, YMCA water experts stressed, the first rule of boating is, learn to swim first. Other boating rules are as simple but just as important.

Need Historical Objects for Fair Exhibit

Albany residents who have historical items dating back to about 1912 who would be willing to donate them for a Golden Anniversary Albany exhibit at the County Fair in Pleasanton have been asked to call the Albany Times (LA 5-1510) and describe them.

It is tentatively planned by a Chamber of Commerce committee, headed by James B. Turner and Ron Baird, to use photographs on the walls of the Albany booth, which will feature a model in clothing of 1912 with an old telephone and cash register. A glass case will be used to display all kinds of items which were used about 1912.

Firemen have been asked to build an arch for the entrance to the booth, which will feature Albany as the northern gateway to Alameda County.

AHS Junior Class Play, 'The Imaginary Invalid,' Friday Night, Auditorium

The junior class of Albany High School, directed by Freeman Sargent, will present an exciting comedy, "The Imaginary Invalid" by Moliere, Friday evening, May 11, in the high school auditorium.

This play is a delightful spoof at the doctors and is the first costume play given at the school. The cast has worked hard on the tricks of timing so necessary in a comedy. Costumes and the simple set prepared by Sargent are expected to enhance the production.

The cast includes Karen Ingenthron, Kermit Collins, Linda Lammano, Linda Forrest, Pete Loutalet, Mark Hames, Mike McNair (who is cast in two roles), Don Cooley, Julius Wright and Ron Goforth.

Several high school clubs are contributing money to help offset the cost of costuming "The Imaginary Invalid".

Everyone is welcome to attend the play and encourage the efforts of the students working in this dramatic medium. Cheryl Nichols is assistant director and Rosetta Selix is in charge of properties.

JAMES E. GOLDMAN of 929 Carmel reported to Albany police that a transistor, valued at $16, had been taken from his unlocked car parked in front of his house May 4.

THANKS FOR WRITING!

Editor, The Times:

We of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Contra Costa County wish to thank you for the support you gave the 1962 Easter Seal Campaign.

Your generous aid will have lasting value in that you have helped assure the continuation and expansion of our efforts to serve the physically handicapped.

Mel Hardin
President

After the first two items on the agenda, under Public Hearings, had been dispensed with and our hearing was due, Mr. Call, Chairman of the Planning and Zoning Commission, suddenly announced that he was relinquishing his seat on the Commission and asked for a reorganization. I questioned Mr. Call on this and asked him if this sort of thing shouldn't have been taken care of before the public hearing. I did not receive a direct answer.

After 15 or 20 minutes of confusion, Mr. Call stated that perhaps the Public Hearing should be carried over for another two weeks. Inasmuch as this particular hearing had been scheduled for April 24, but postponed for a week because of a lack of a quorum on that date, the audience dissented. At this point Mr. Luoma was nominated to fill the chair vacated by Mr. Call.

The people who are appointed to this Commission should definitely be for the Good of the City. In my opinion this was not the situation at this point in this particular meeting.

It seems to me that a very definite procedure should be followed by all members of the Planning and Zoning Commission on each item of business on the agenda, otherwise what purpose does the agenda serve?

Mildred S. Wigginton

Mrs. Leonard Lee Keck 1223 Portland Avenue Albany City Chairman

Editor, The Times:

My heartfelt thanks and sincere praise to all the dedicated workers on the Cancer Drive. It was a great success and we were able to donate over $2,000 from the people of Albany to the American Cancer Society for their research program into the cause and cure of cancer.

I especially want to thank my area chairmen: Mrs. Stuart Johns, Mrs. David Wallace, Mrs. Raymond Paine, and Mrs. William Culley for the splendid job they and their captains did in voluntarily recruiting over 400 workers! You and your workers have earned a well-deserved "pat on the back" from the American Cancer Society for your extraordinary good will and cooperation.

My thanks also to the management of Albany Bowl: Bill Lacey and Bob Rhea, for their wonderful support during the "Bowl Down Cancer Week" competition.

On behalf of all the workers, I would like to dedicate this Cancer Drive in tribute to the families and friends of those who have been victims of cancer. We hope that our efforts will be of real help in conquering that dread disease.

Mrs. Leonard Lee Keck
1223 Portland Avenue
Albany City Chairman

Albany Units See Closed Chest Cardiac Massage Demonstration by Dr. Benson

Alameda County Heart Association, in a program at the Albany Fire House, demonstrated the proper methods of applying Closed Chest Cardiac Massage. This specialized training was given to Albany's Fire, Police and Health Departments.

James Boyers of the Heart Association told of the progress being made by his group in training doctors, nurses, hospital and rescue personnel in this technique and had a very interesting film that told of the development of closed chest heart massage at the John Hopkins Hospital.

Dr. Kenelm W. Benson, who has had much experience in this work, gave a very dramatic demonstration of the application of the method using a very life-like training aid developed in Norway. To complete the program, everyone present applied the method, using the training aid, with Doctor Benson coaching.

In preparation for this, personnel had studied films obtained from the State Health Department on "The Heart And How It Works" and "Common Heart Disorders".
